FAIRFIELD JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

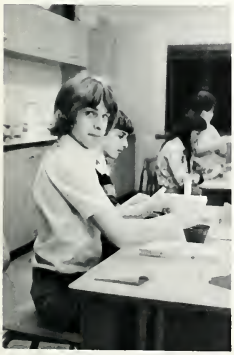
Fort Wayne, Indiana



FAIRFIELD OFFICE STAFF

Fairfield's principal, Mr. Hoffman (at left) provided many kinds of leadership during the 1977-78 school year. Although he was often busy with the business of running a large junior high, he always had time to stop and chat with students, to counsel, or even to pose for those yearbook pictures! In a year with the worse blizzard in Fort Wayne history, he managed to maintain his warm and friendly personality.

Dr. Johnson (at right), our assistant principal, helped handle discipline and scheduling, and did a little bit of every job at Fairfield during this school year. School secretaries Mrs. Lake (below left) and Mrs. Harvill (below at right) handled their many duties efficiently this year, and they kept our busy office organized.

OFFICE STAFF

Office workers at Fairfield helped in many ways to keep our school in operation. Below are (top row) Mrs. Carboni and Mrs. Crum, office aides; Mrs. Harvill, secretary; (middle row) Dr. Johnson, assistant principal, Mrs. Lake, secretary, Mrs. Pinkerton, attendance clerk; (bottom row) Mr. Salvador, counselor aide, Mrs. Stephens, guidance counselor, and Mrs. Wright, study hall teacher.

Mr. Andrews (top left) made thousands of phone calls this year to help students and parents solve problems. Mr. Salvador (top right) kept busy in the halls and cafeteria, and had a good first year at Fairfield as a counselor aide. Mrs. Stephens (below) served as counselor, but also made all arrangements for our tours and guest speakers on career days, and helped with achievement testing.

FAIRFIELD ARTISTS

Mr. Ade (left) headed the Fairfield art department and made sure students had many opportunities to get experience in many types of projects this year.

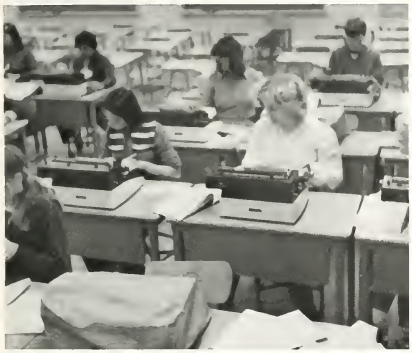
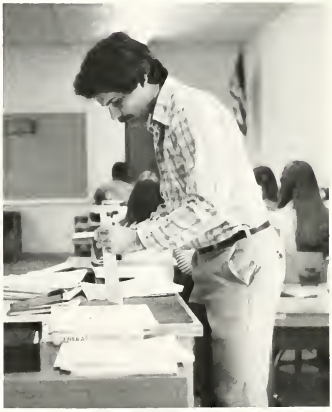
BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Mr. Mahon (left) headed the business department at Fairfield, and made sure his students developed the necessary skills for the world of commerce.



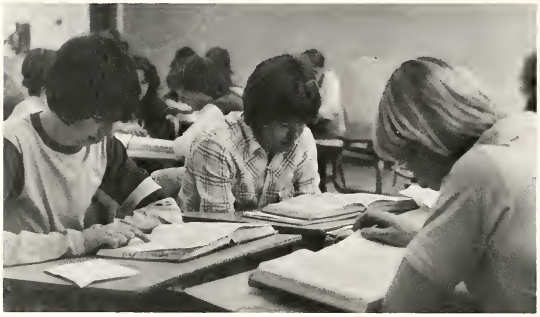


Students often typed to music to develop good rhythm and coordination. Mr. Mahon (above) ran a neat room and set a high standard.

Mike Laker concentrates on his work in room 151 (above).

Alicia Hamblin (above) is caught by surprise while typing an exercise.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT



Mark Watrous, Joe Minnich, and Mark Spillson work together reading the works of William Shakespeare, an important unit of study in ninth grade English classes. Basics of good speech and writing, and the works of great authors were stressed this year at Fairfield. Films, recordings, and other audio-visual methods were used by most teachers.

Fairfield English teachers included (top right) Mrs. Bartkiewicz, Mr. Ehinger, Mrs. Getsie, Miss Haefling, Mrs. Klus, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Stein, and Mr. Tannas.

FRENCH, SPANISH CLASSES

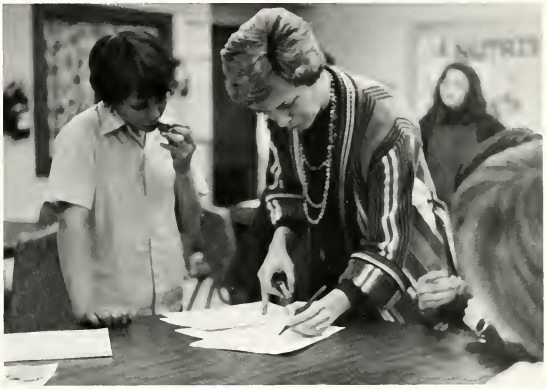
INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Teachers Bruner and Purcell (above) were always available for help in industrial arts classes. Spartans worked on many types of projects under their guidance in the 1977-78 year.

Mr. Bruner (above) explains equipment to Tina Logan, Chad Bohde, and Dawn Coleman in a nine-week class; Mr. Purcell (top right) looks on as rockets are prepared for launching. Students are Wolfgang Schaff, Ken Carr, Tony Evans, Jeff Lake, and Dave Vestal. Ken Bohde (center right) works at the wood lathe while Cliff Tyrell watches; Band saw repaired (at right).

HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Brandt and Mrs. Oberley (above) taught all home economics classes at Fairfield this year. Mrs. Brandt (right) checks a paper, while 7th grader Jerry Tyrrell looks on.

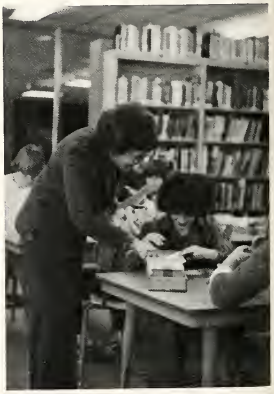


Kris Makridakis and Darnell Fuqua (above) work on an assignment for Mrs. Oberley. The seventh grade unified arts program gave students a short course of study in home economics, music, art, and shop this year. Miss Westfall (above right) was Mrs. Brandt's student teacher, and taught and learned a lot during her stay with us. Sewing, cooking, nutrition, home decorating, and all aspects of good home management were studied in this department.

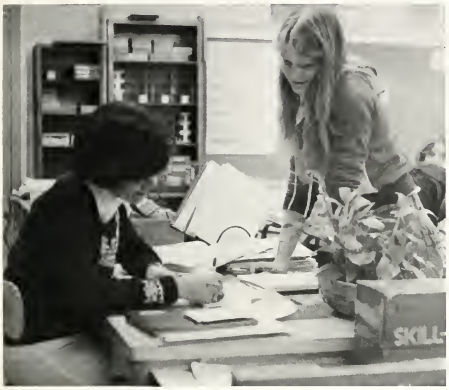
MEDIA CENTER

Librarians Mrs. Kariger and Mrs. Wright (above) did much to help us in our studies this year. Library helpers this year included (top row) Lee Parker, Brent Howard, Bob Wine, Kenneth Bohde; (front row) Mrs. Wright, Elizabeth Luczak, Jerry Kitch, Rita Batchelder, Terry Carboni, Jim Cochran, and Mrs. Kariger.

Blinds closed to conserve energy in a cold winter, the library really stayed busy. Mrs. Kariger and Bob Wine (below) checked books, and seventh graders (below right) practiced using the card catalog.



SPARTAN MATHEMATICS



Fairfield mathematics was taught by Mr. Booker, Mrs. Egley, Mr. Erickson, Mrs. Kimmel, Miss Lindley, and Mr. Ornelas. Mr. Nordlin (not shown) also taught one mathematics class.

Mrs. Kimmel (top of page) gives Kim Keane some help with a problem; Mr. Booker (above) explains algebra to his ninth graders. Nick Brouer (at right) poses for the camera while Mr. Ornelas takes attendance. Eighth grader Pete Weaver (above right) works at the board in Miss Lindley's class in room 119.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Girls physical education classes demonstrate good form in a game of basketball (above). The gym was busy.

Boys (above) play volleyball as part of their training in Mr. Tindall's class. All team sports were played.

SPARTAN SCIENTISTS

Fairfield science teachers (above) were Mr. Beck, Miss Brosier, Mr. Bruns, Mr. Crum, Mr. Nordlin, and Mr. Rosinski. Students at right include Theresa Welling, Missy Andonian, Troy Creek, and Marcia Fisher in Mr. Foellinger's class.

SOCIAL STUDIES

SPARTANS IN WASHINGTON

Students who went on the school trip to Washington, D.C. are shown above. They are (front row) Maria Quintero, Linda Johnson, Pat Cole, Rhonda Orr, Vicki Roe, Deneen Grizzle, Jill Ake, Beth Keller, Melissa Andonian, Marsha Fischer, Susan Smethers, Beth Shannon; (top row) Tim Diss, Errol Abernathy, Blaine Harper, Stacey Tribolet, Kathleen McKenna, Kurt DeLong, Kelly Smith, Cheryl Baker, tour organizer and sponsor Ms. Butler, chaperone Mr. Ornelas, Dan Erwin, Wolfgang Schaaf, Pete Skelly, Bill Carboni, Matt Didier, Audra Faux, and Tim Diss. Field trips provided many opportunities for Fairfield students to learn first-hand about the operation of our government and to visit sites of historical importance.

SKIN DIVING CLUB

Dan Erwin (above) poses for a shot taken underwater by Mr. Donlan, a diving instructor and sponsor of skin diving club. Other members were Kevin Kurtz, Jim Edelman, Ken Bohde, Marc Jones, Kenyon Koch, Paul Robison III, Kurt DeLong, and Ken Christie. The Downtown YMCA pool was used for diving.

Mr. Oberley (at right) taught special education classes in room 115 this year, and also cosponsored skin diving club.

but there's no substitute for real practice and equipment (above).

SPORTS AND INTRAMURALS

Several groups of students met for intramural sports this year. One boys' group is pictured above. Cheerleaders and fans (below) enjoyed many football games at Foster Park in the fall of 1977. Mr. Bruns meets with his players in a huddle at the sideline (bottom left); Ken Helvie, Mike Wilkins, and Thomas Barbee (bottom Right) watch the game from the bleachers.

FAIRFIELD BASKETBALL

Girls' coach Mrs. Murphy (above) in action.

Scores for this season show how talented our girls' varsity really was, under the expert direction of coach Murphy:
Fairfield 36
Shawnee 17;
Fairfield 28
Northwood 33;
Fairfield 44
Geyer 27;
Fairfield 33
Kekionga 24;
Fairfield 39
Wayne 13
Fairfield 45
Portage 10;
Fairfield 44
Blackhawk 22.
Fairfield girls' teams all made their marks.

Amy Davis (above) takes a shot against Kekionga.

Spartans	Opponent
43	Franklin	38
34	Jefferson	54
41	Northwood	30
44	Lane	45
65	Blackhawk	59
45	Shawnee	27
39	Geyer	42
47	Lakeside	46
42	Wayne	43

Our tradition of good sportsmanship was continued this year.

SPARTAN CHEERLEADERS

1978 WRESTLERS

Eighth grade football team (above) included: (top row) Coach Mr. Bruns, Steve Libbing, Dirk Torrie, Rich Miller, Elroy Kreider, Scott Bushey, Brent Caroline, Stacey Tribolet, Mark Simon, Chris Bailey, Rufus Dominguez, Nick Brower, Chester Hill; (middle row) Ken Heingartner, Amada Moreno, Erroll Abernathy, Sam Wilson, Mike Eckert, Tony Patterson, Robert Wills, Ken Carr, Dan Zehr; (front row) Tom Swinford, Matt Carroll, Matt Wildermuth, Doug Perkins, Pete Skelly, Dwayne Riley, Dave Barnes, Murrell Hinkle, Dave Sheron, Kirk DeLong, Chris Palmer.

Eighth grade football players had a good year this year, but because of many tough breaks came out with a win-loss record of 2-3. The most exciting game of the season was a 6-0 loss to Geyer Junior High, who went on to become city champs. Under the direction of Coach Bruns, the eighth graders worked hard to get ready for senior high football.

Seventh grade football players (above) were: (top row) Joe Billingsley, John Athen, Todd Renner, Mit Miller, Ken Christie, Rich Deister, Cal Warren, Terry Granahan, Coach Mahon; (middle row) Marcus Allen, Duncan Kinzer, John Didier, Brooks Beatty, Darnell Fuqua, Charles Claypool, Wade Smith, Jay Hyland; (front row) Ron Fincher, Doug Rowe, Fred McCulloch, Brian Nierman, Damian Lebamoff, Scott Hall, Ben Reuille, Leon Miller, Duane Anderson. Tom Pearson is missing from this photo.

Varsity team (above) gets close to the goal line in a game at Foster Park. At the end of the season Fairfield had a record of three wins and two losses in ninth grade football. All Fairfield teams showed outstanding sportsmanship.

CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPS

Cross- country team, with trophies from the city and invitational meets: (front) Jim Westropp, Scott Tribolet; (back) Lee Parker, Cliff Epple, Blaine Harper, Dan Erwin, Courtney Malott, Dave Skelly, Pat Diss, Cathy Babcock, Tony Hechler, Tammy Mendez, Matt Holley, David Mitchell, Nick Spillson, John Speiser, Tim Diss, Donnie Wasson, Tim Hegge, Jose Mendez, and Coach Mr. Foellinger. Hard work and expert coaching by Mr. Foellinger, and a dedicated team, made this a championship year.

A practice session (above) is momentarily disrupted as Jeff Anderson passes through while the team poses. Bizzie Bromley (left) models, while Mrs. Murphy watches pratice.

Girls' choir gave a special salute to director Mr. Anderson (at right) whose dedication and long hours of coaching made the Fairfield vocal music groups some of the best in the city.

CANDY SALE RECORD

In the 1977-78 candy sale, Fairfield students sold a record amount, $20,150 in total sales. The profits from this sales record are used each year to purchase such extras as pictures, equipment, and extra supplies for special school projects. Mr. Larry Andrews, guidance counselor, headed this sale and was known as "The Candy Man" by students and teachers alike.

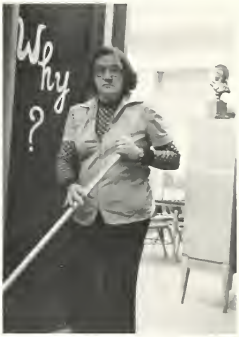
Miss Haefling's homeroom (above) was the top sales homeroom this year. Salesmen included (top row) Marcy Lohm, Cathy Wise, Brian Howey, Jim Christie; (seated) Lisa Moore, Carrie Jandron, Sheila Skelly, Jill Myers, Sandy Deininger, Conja Smith, Miss Haefling, and Duncan Kinzer.

Mr. Jack Porter (below) made good his promise of an ice cream party for the top sales rooms when we passed our goal. Winning rooms (below) really enjoyed their treat in the school cafeteria. Top school salesman, Bill Hartman, sold $382 and won $75 cash.

Second place winner in school sales was Susan Kelsaw, $348; Cherrie Bolenbaugh was third with sales of $322. Sandy Heffner and Jill Roberts tied for fourth place with $232 each in sales, and $20 prize money.

CUSTODIAL STAFF

Custodians (left) are Mr. Diamente, Mrs. Schroeder, Mr. Shoemaker, Mr. Smith, and Mrs. Tracey. Their work made Fairfield safe and efficient in 1977-78.



Mrs. Schroeder (far left) takes a break from her hallway cleaning to pose for the VOYAGER camera. Mr. Diamente (above middle) is caught in the act of emptying trash; Mrs. Tracey (above right) mops in the library. Mr. Smith and cafeteria workers (bottom left) take time to mug for our photographer. Cafeteria tables were cleaned daily (below); floors, walls, lockers--everything--got thorough attention from our first-rate staff.

KITCHEN STAFF

Kitchen workers (left) were Mrs. Blombach, Mrs. Doster, Mrs. Geyer, Mrs. Melchi, and Mrs. Melintis. Mrs. Leiman is pictured below.

After another busy lunch period, Mrs. Blombach finishes cleaning equipment.

Mrs. Melintis (above) poses as she puts trays in order.

EVERYDAY PEOPLE

Jim Westropp worked in the library second semester, organizing books.

Dave Voltz (above) had a lense for every situation except a closeup of Jenny Carson at a gym practice.

REHEARSAL, SNOWY WHITE

Mrs. Getsie and her dramatics group spent many practice sessions in the Fairfield cafeteria to prepare for the play "Snowy White and the Seven Dwarfs." Actors (at left) include (on stage) Gina Lopez, Marianne Manning, Vicki Roe, Tricia Clark, John Rencher, Natalie Nunez, Susan Allen, Cheryl Brown; others (off stage) are Mrs. Getsie, Janet Higgins, Bonnie Pranger, Matt Wildermuth, and Duane Riley. Plays presented to Spartan classes were only one method of instruction that was hard work and fun combined.
